Supreme Court update

Thank you to all of our supporters who are continuing to pray about our Supreme Court petition to protect Oak Flat. Our case was not mentioned in today's Supreme Court orders list. The next time we expect to hear from the Court is Monday at 9:30 a.m. Eastern time. We will update you again on Monday.

We continue to be encouraged that the Court is devoting extra time to our case and giving it careful examination. We ask all of our supporters to continue praying that the Justices will agree to hear our case and protect Oak Flat—just as the sacred places of other faiths have long been protected throughout the country. Thank you again for your support.
