Supreme Court update

Thank you to all of our supporters who are continuing to pray about our Supreme Court petition to protect Oak Flat. As you may know, the Supreme Court considered our petition at its conference on January 24, 2025. The Court did not issue its decision following that conference, and our case was not mentioned in today's order from the Court. The next time the Court could consider our petition again is at its next conference on February 21, 2025. We could hear on February 24 or afterward whether the Court will take our case, or the Court may take additional time for further consideration.

Either way, we take this as an encouraging sign that the Court is devoting extra time to our case and giving it careful examination. We ask all of our supporters to continue praying that the Justices will agree to hear our case and protect Oak Flat—just as the sacred places of other faiths have long been protected throughout the country. Thank you again for your support.
